

Allium

NEW from SURTECO

Allium is an eye-catching abstract design with marvellous ombré colouring and a delicate-looking surface. Fine striped sections transition from light to dark and dark to light, creating a very modern yet refreshing aesthetic. In botany, Allium is the name given to the leek genus, which belongs to the Amaryllis family. Our Allium decor was created from ordinary, long leek leaves that were linked together with great attention to detail.

Characteristics: Stripy, refined, ombré effect

Application: Furniture, surfaces
